President Dobie Gutweiller

Let me start by hoping that you all had a wonderful holiday season and wishing all of you a wonderful 2018. I am still somewhat stunned to be the newest President of the WHPA and I hope that I am able to do my best to represent you and make you proud, and I hope that I am able to follow in the footsteps of our amazing past presidents. I wanted to take a minute to tell you a little about myself. While I am originally from Brooklyn, New York, I moved to Wisconsin at a young age and consider it home. I have four children, daughters Kari (Chad) and Lindsey and sons James (Lizzy) and Michael. I also have 3 amazing grandsons, Zach, Braden and Clayton. I started pitching shoes in 1983 and have pitched in at least one league every year since. I joined the Deansville Horseshoe club in 2001 and currently serve as the co-secretary/treasurer. In the past I served as Vice-President of the club. I hope that my passion for pitching and love for my horseshoe family, near and far, will give me a strong foundation as I begin my term. I hope to meet as many of you as possible as I get to as many tournaments as I can this year. I am especially looking forward to going to the World Tournament in July and the State Tournament this year. I want to thank those who have been really supportive and have offered their assistance as I begin this undertaking, especially Rudy Van Fleet, John Meyer, Gary Volz, Tom Steinke, Kevin Brekke, Glenn Bogenschneider and Jane Smith. I hope you will all feel comfortable contacting me if there is ever anything that I can assist you with. I can be reached at (608) 513-4625 or dobiecanhelp@gmail.com and will always do my best to help you.

WHPA
Chaplain
Ken Heinritz

The memories of our good friend & comrade Ron Button will live on. Ron was an unbelievable competitor with an uncanny knack for digging down for a little extra at the end of a tight game, usually pulling it off. As far as the horseshoe pitching world goes, he came out of nowhere, appearing as an elder. After just a few short years in this new sport, his determination to get ringers took him straight to the top, not just once, but Ron won the Wisconsin Elder Men's State title 3 times (2012, 2013, & 2014). He also played a huge part in Team Wisconsin winning the team world event in 2013. Not only was his pitching A-1, but his positive attitude combined with an enjoyable sense of humor were top notch, making this man truly a pleasure to be around. Every memory I have of Ron Button are all good ones . . . I will miss you my friend!

"I thank my God upon every remembrance of you."

Beloit Horseshoe Club Makes History in the Beloit Paper

By Erica Pennington / Kevin Brekke / Fred Lane

BELOIT — There’s nothing better than hearing a loud clank followed by the thump of a shoe hitting the stake and landing for a ringer.

Members of the Beloit Horseshoe Club are always hoping to pitch a “ringer,” but even those who struggle to get a shoe near the pit are welcome.

The club, located at 640 Ravine Drive, is known just as much for its friendly faces as it is for wonderful facilities and champions who call it “home.”

“Horseshoes is a very challenging sport and it is 90 percent mental,” said Earl Paulson, a longtime member of the club.

The Beloit Horseshoe Club draws in players from all over the Stateline Area and beyond. It hosts practice nights, organized leagues, and the prestigious Team World Tournament, the weekend after Mother’s Day in May. The Club averages one “Open” Tournament a month, and uses an indoor facility in bad weather and during the winter months. The 13 outdoor courts are used in the late spring, summer and fall months. This year the Beloit Horseshoe Club hosted the Wisconsin State Horseshoe Tournament, which is held each Labor Day Weekend. The 2018 tournament will be held in Mosinee. Current club member since 2005, and 2nd Vice President of the Wisconsin Horseshoe Pitchers Association (WHPA), Kevin Brekke of Edgerton, started pitching horseshoes over 44 years ago after being mentored by a state champion.

“I would walk to school and I would see the courts at the bars around town...I met Harold Bestul,” Brekke said.

A mentorship and friendship grew over time. Harold (1916-2004) was a 1984 Wisconsin State Horseshoe Hall of Fame inductee, and won the Men’s Championship class at the State tournament in Eau Claire in a four-way playoff at the age of 66 in 1983.

“He taught me how to watch the really good players and had a lot of wisdom to share,” Brekke said.

The willingness to teach others is something special among horseshoe players, said to Fred Lane,

WHPA Publicity Director.

“Everyone (in the horseshoes community) is so friendly and wants to show you how to play,” Lane said.

The goal of recreational horseshoes is to score a set amount of points before the opponent (or the other team) does. Each pitcher throws two horseshoes per “inning.” One point is awarded if the horseshoe comes within a short distance (usually six inches) of the stake without hitting the backboard of the pit. A “ringer,” means the horseshoe encircles the metal stake, and is worth three points.

“The other way (to play) is a shoe limit game, where there is a set number of shoes that each player pitches and whatever the score is at the end is the final score,” Lane said. “This is the most common way games are played at the Beloit Horseshoe Club and in the WHPA in general.”

Most horseshoes weigh in at between 2 pounds 6 ounces to 2 pounds 10 ounces. There are different strategies that pitchers use to try to get a ringer.

Some throw a “flip” style, while others rely on various grips for a “turn” style. Flip pitchers throw the horseshoe so that it moves end-over-end. Turn pitchers toss the horseshoe almost like a frisbee.

“You just have to toss it the way that works for you,” Paulson said of the way he learned to pitch years ago. “The horseshoe has to be open or it won’t go on the stake.”

Each of the game stakes are located 40 feet from each other. Men from ages 18-70 toss an actual distance of 37 feet.

Children, youth under 17, the disabled, women and men over 70 have the option to pitch from 27 feet instead.

“Anybody can pick up a horseshoe and play,” Lane said, noting that he’s seen players of all ages and physical abilities at competitions.

It was about four years ago that Lane fell in love with horseshoes. He travels all the way from Stevens Point to pitch at the Beloit Horseshoe Club.

“Beloit has such a nice facility that if it was in my backyard I’d probably live there,” he said.

Although Lane’s passion for the sport has grown over the past few years, his initial interest came from watching his father play.

Family camping trips never could be 100 percent peaceful thanks to a friendly rivalry between good ol’ dad and the camp’s director.

“They’d always duke it out,” Lane said with a laugh. “Once I ended up in Stevens Point I found a horseshoe set on Craigslist and bought it.”

The whopping $15 Lane spent for a few horseshoes and a couple stakes proved to be money well spent. He really hasn’t stopped pitching since.

Helping others to discover (or rediscover) a love for the game is really what the Beloit Horseshoe Club is all about.

“We have time on Thursday nights where people can come watch or participate,” Brekke said. “It’s good to just come out.”

In addition to building a wide network of friends, another benefit to horseshoes is that it’s inexpensive, he said. Pitchers just need to buy their horseshoes and dedicate some (or a lot) of time to practice, depending on their desired skill level.

And while the Beloit Horseshoe Club is home to the Wisconsin Hall of Fame, there’s no pressure to end up there. Most members just want to have fun.

“It doesn’t take long for people to realize that this (sport) isn’t just about pitching a horseshoe,” Brekke said. “It’s about being one big family.”

Horseshoes has a long history in Beloit. It really kicked off in 1955 when Beloit resident Earl Ramquist won the Wisconsin State Championship in West Allis.

Ramquist, Al Walmsley, Ben Brostuen and others built eight courts at the Vernon Avenue playgrounds in the late 1950s. In 1967 Don Goldsmith and his father built four regulation courts off Shirland Avenue and Fisher Road in South Beloit, and that became the hangout spot every Tuesday and Saturday afternoon until the 1980s. There were no organized leagues at the time.

With a growing number of players came the need for the horseshoe “club” to become more organized. The league was sanctioned by the National Horseshoe Pitcher’s Association (NHPA) in 1985. Then came the need for a permanent home on the Wisconsin side of the state line. The area near what was then Ken Nelson’s “Hitchin’ Post” tavern on Newark Road began to be eyed as a good location.

Beloit Horseshoe Club President Bud Renley began to clear the land and nine regulation-sized courts were created in the spring of 1987. The 1989 Wisconsin State Tournament, originally scheduled to be held in Sturtevant, came to Beloit. The number of courts grew to 13. International Team World play came to Beloit’s Telfer Park in 1990 and continues to visit annually.

The present team’s Telfer Park schedule includes the Wisconsin State Club Team Tournament (last Saturday in April); Wisconsin State Walking Doubles Tournament (last Sunday in April); Beloit Encore Tournament (first weekend in May); Team World (third weekend in May). Club tournaments include the Beloit Spring Singles, Southern Wisconsin Open, Annual Doubles Tournament, among others.

Alzheimer's Poem

Do not ask me to remember
 Do not try to make me understand.
 Let me rest and know you are with me
 Kiss my cheek and hold my hand.
 I'm confused beyond your concept.
 I am sad and sick and lost.
 All I need to know is that you are with me at all cost.
 Do not lose your patience with me.
 Do not scold or curse my cry.
 I can't help the way I'm acting.
 I can't be different though I try.
 Just remember that I need you,
 That the best of me is gone.
 Please don't fail to stand beside me,
 Love me till my life is done.

anon

Our horseshoe family nationwide has many varied health issues. Alzheimer's and Dementia are two devastating diseases we are becoming more and more aware of. As we read this prayer, let's give special thanks for the days when our friends were happy, healthy and pitching many ringers.
