** Honorary Hall of Fame Member

2018 Hall of Fame Inductee—Kevin Brekke

I started pitching bar leagues in Rosholt at the age of 16. My mentor was Harold Bestul, who took me to tournaments, had me as a partner, and we would go to the Spring and Fall state meetings. I went to my first State Tournament, which was my first sanctioned tournament, in 1983 at Eau Claire.

In the 1980's I pitched at the Pitching Palace, and in the early 90's, I pitched at Royalwood in Plover. And of course, I pitched in the State Tournament each Labor Day Weekend. Going to tournaments in the 80's, I met some lifelong friend pitchers, that would help me, and practice with me, and we would go to tournaments together. People like Brian Repinski, Randy Rein, Bill Hilldebrand (Horseshoe Hill), Cliff and Galdys Lila, Chet Ogiba, Gus Schram, and so many others. We would go to tournaments, like the Loyal Cornfest, to Plum Lake on the 4th of July, the Rosholt Fair, and many more. I did the same horseshoe routine each year, until 1995, when my back went out, and I did not think I would pitch again.

The year now is 1997, and in November I made a job change, and moved the family to Green Bay in 1999. I joined the Green Bay Horseshoe Club, and started to pitch again. I started running the Green Bay Open and was its Tournament Director for two years.

I left Green Bay in spring of 2002, and moved to the Madison area, until I settled in Edgerton in 2005, where I live currently.

I met John Garvan from Edgerton in 2005 and started mentoring him. We spent hours together perfecting our games and competing in over 25 tournaments a year, until John could no longer pitch. Jane Smith, who nominated me said, "I nominated Kevin because of his passion for this sport and his willingness to do everything possible to promote it. He is a caring individual, and everyone is important to him."
