Casey Jones never won the World Title, but for many years he ranked near the top. He was runner up for the title five times and established many records. His 87.5 percent ringers in 1948 still stands as an all time ringer record for an entire tournament. During this stretch he had 13 games out of 31 in which he bettered 90 percent ringers. Today Casey is a successful manager of a large bowling establishment in Wisconsin and one of the top ranking bowlers in the country.
